

Raymond has worked for accessAbilities since November 2018. As a New England native, Raymond served in the US Army. After returning home he found his passion for helping others while working at Polk Center.

Employee Spotlight

Raymond Bell

Direct Care Worker

Why did you choose to work in this field?

I enjoy helping someone reach and accomplish their individual goals every day.

What do you like about working with accessAbilities clients?

The clients are awesome, I really enjoy working with them.

What are your interests and hobbies?

Sitting by the fire at my sister's house, visiting with family, especially my grandson. I enjoy traveling and have had the opportunity to see many foreign lands. I currently attend Strayer University where I'm working towards a degree in Criminal Science and Behavior.